

SMART INDOOR HYDROPONICS

Indoor Hydroponics

In hydroponics the roots of the plants are kept submerged in a nutrient solution rather than soil. Being done in a completely controlled environment the yield is optimised and wastage is reduced.

Our Goal

Our goal is to further optimise the system by reducing the human effort for monitoring and controlling different elements of the farm and automating the actions to some extent.

